AVILLION CHRISTMAS CARNIVAL

Sharing Joy and Love this Special Occasion

Port Dickson, 17th December 2013 – Avillion Hotel Group hosted a joyful and entertaining Christmas Carnival for 120 children in Avillion Admiral Cove today. The Avillion Port Dickson and Avillion Admiral Cove teams aimed to create an engaging event for the children from Shelter Home 1, 2 and 3, NLCC Home and RHEMA Home respectively to share the joy and love of this festive season.

Five colourful booths of different carnival games were set up, along with 100 prize items for the children. There were also a variety of outdoor activities and stimulating games where the Avillion team brought endless excitement and laughter to the children. Everyone was treated to a sumptuous buffet lunch after a whole morning of outdoor fun. The Avillion team brought even more smiles to the children's faces with ice creams and delectable desserts. Jovial music surrounded the venue as members of the media and the Avillion team joined the Children in this merry occasion while Santa Claus and Santa Rina gave away Christmas presents.

In its effort to raise charity funds, Avillion is selling charity Teddy at RM28 each in the hotels throughout the year end holiday season. Guests get to enjoy a complimentary cup of coffee or tea with a homemade cookie for every purchase of the charity Teddy. In addition, the Avillion Hotels are also contributing to the funds with every purchase of their Christmas Eve Package, New Year's Eve Package, Kiddies Treat and Family Plus Package from 16th November to 31st December 2013.

"The Avillion team works hard to raise funds to help needy children of the homes we support, whether it is education needs or basic necessities," said Gricia Gan, Managing Director, Avillion Hotel Group. "We believe the children are part of our next generation and strive to provide them with a better year ahead."

In 2013, Avillion Hotel Group provided for the education and basic needs of Shelter 2 with the funds raised in 2012 where the hotel group 3,000 pieces of desktop calendars. This year, Avillion will increase the number of children it supports in terms of education needs and basic necessities with the funds raised from the charity Teddy campaign.

Avillion has a long standing history in community programmes surrounding issues on the environment and underprivileged children as its Corporate Social Responsibility. The
