PORT DICKSON, Oct 2 -- Malaysia's beloved songstress Datuk Seri Siti Nurhaliza Taruddin is among 1,600 riders who have confirmed their participation for the Bank Muamalat Avillion Coastal Ride 2019 on Sunday.

According to the event organiser, Siti was expected to join the 30km category which would start and end at the Avillion Admiral Cove Hotel here, that covered places, among other, the Port Dickson Polytechnic, Teluk Kemang, Jalan Sri Rusa and Jalan Pantai.

Avillion Hotel Group business development and marketing director Helen Tan said the cycling programme, which has entered its third edition, has received an encouraging response including from participants from Singapore.

"There are three categories, namely 160km, 80km and 30km. In the past the programme has been successful, attracting over a thousand participants. Last year, a total of 1,200 cyclists had participated.

"In addition to the rides, the event is also aimed at promoting Port Dickson as a holiday destination. We also have a plan to turn this programme into an annual event," she said.
