Avillion Port Dickson Spreads Holiday Cheer at Shekinah Care Centre

Seremban, 12 Dec 2024 – Avillion Port Dickson proudly participated in a heartwarming Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative this Christmas at the Shekinah Care Centre in Seremban, under the tagline “Time for Giving, Time for Sharing.” This event aimed to share happiness with those less fortunate and align our efforts with the company’s core values of community support and compassion.

Led by the Human Resources Department, our team collaborated closely with Ms. Jennifer, the administrator of Shekinah Care Centre, to ensure a meaningful experience for all involved. During our visit, we contributed goods valued at RM500 and provided a specially prepared Christmas menu lunch crafted by our talented chefs. This gesture was not just about providing food; it was about creating a joyful atmosphere for the residents of the care center.

Avillion Port Dickson’s Assistant General Manager (AGM), Mr. Joannes Martin Savage expressed heartfelt gratitude to all participants and contributors, stating, “As we gather for this important Corporate Social Responsibility event, I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all participants and contributors. My hope for this event is to foster a spirit of collaboration and community engagement. Together, we can make a meaningful impact on the lives of others and demonstrate our commitment to positive social change.”

The AGM further emphasized the importance of this initiative as a platform for inspiring conversations and innovative ideas that resonate long after today’s activities. “Let us work hand in hand to strengthen our community ties and create lasting legacies,” he added.

Avillion Port Dickson remains dedicated to making a positive impact in the communities we serve. This Christmas event at Shekinah Care Centre is just one example of how we strive to give back and spread joy during the festive season.
